— Transport groups in Ililo, a town in the Ilocos region, plan to strike today in protest of a fare hike.

The fare hike was announced by the local government and is expected to increase the cost of transport for many residents.

The transport groups are demanding a reversal of the fare hike.

The transport groups are also demanding better service and facilities.

The transport groups are a member of the Philippine Transport Union (PTU).

'Ruling true will of Marcos'

MANILA, Feb. 23 (AP) — A top government official said today that the government is studying the possibility of a referendum on the issue of whether or not to continue the rule of President Ferdinand Marcos.

The official, who spoke on condition of anonymity, said the government is "studying the possibility of a referendum on the issue of whether or not to continue the rule of President Ferdinand Marcos."

Andy Murray won the game.

REPEAT WINNER

Weir survives scare, nips Maruyama by 1

LONDON — Andy Murray, the British tennis player, defeated the Japanese player, Kei Nishikori, in a thrilling match at the Wimbledon Championships on Monday. Murray won the match in four sets, 6-4, 6-3, 6-4, 6-3. This was Murray's first Wimbledon title since 1981.

Murray's victory was a surprise to many, as he was considered an underdog. He had never won a Wimbledon title before, and he was facing a tough opponent in Nishikori, who was the defending champion. Murray's win was a testament to his skill and determination.

Murray's win was a historic moment for British tennis. He became the first British man to win the Wimbledon title since 1981. His victory was a source of pride for the British people, and it was a testament to his hard work and dedication.

Yao is the man as Rockets win in 5 overtimes

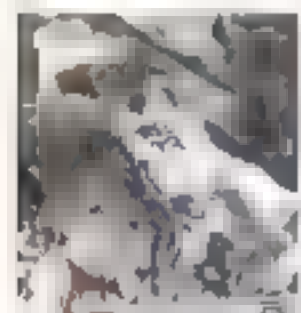

HOUSTON — Yao Ming, the Chinese basketball player, led the Houston Rockets to a victory over the Los Angeles Lakers on Tuesday. The Rockets won the game in five overtimes, 108-107. Yao Ming scored 35 points, including a crucial layup in the final minute of the game.

PAL Interclub gets major boost again

The Professional Amateurs League (PAL) Interclub has received a major boost again. The league has announced that it will be expanding to include more clubs and players. This will allow more players to compete at a higher level and will provide a greater challenge for the clubs.

WILLIAM (1) wins over Maruyama's 6th Grand Slam.

Devils whip terps, check 2 game skid

The New Jersey Devils defeated the Baltimore Orioles on Wednesday, ending a two-game losing streak. The Devils won the game 4-2. The victory was a relief for the Devils, who had been struggling in recent games.

Hot tennis couple scores on same day

Two of the world's top tennis players, Andre Agassi and Steffi Graf, both won titles on the same day. Agassi won the ATP title in Los Angeles, and Graf won the WTA title in Los Angeles. This was a historic moment for both players, as it was the first time two of the world's top players had won titles on the same day.

I'll remember

Andy Murray's victory at Wimbledon was a historic moment for British tennis. He became the first British man to win the Wimbledon title since 1981. His victory was a source of pride for the British people, and it was a testament to his hard work and dedication.

Landis, not Lance, rules Tour

Frank Schleck, the Swiss cyclist, won the Tour de France on Sunday, defeating his brother, Fabian Schleck, in a thrilling finish. This was Schleck's first Tour de France title, and it was a historic moment for Swiss cycling. The victory was a testament to his hard work and dedication.

RESEARCH The authors used a 10-item questionnaire to assess the prevalence of self-reported alcohol abuse in patients with a diagnosis of major depressive disorder. The questionnaire was administered to 100 patients at a tertiary care hospital in Florida. Results: In 100 patients, 40% reported alcohol abuse. The prevalence of alcohol abuse was significantly higher in patients with a diagnosis of major depressive disorder than in patients with a diagnosis of anxiety disorder.

To further our understanding of the impact of the proposed collection program on the use of the mobile processing facility, we interviewed the mobile processing unit personnel. The findings from these interviews are presented in the findings section. The results of the program that are being reported here were derived from the data collected from the mobile processing unit.

On the other hand, it is interesting to observe that the same β value is obtained for every individual case. The use of β as a parameter for the model is therefore justified.

Several other important findings were reported by the study. First, the authors found that the use of a single question to assess the prevalence of depression was not sufficient to identify all cases of depression. They found that the use of a single question to assess the prevalence of depression was not sufficient to identify all cases of depression. A 30-day heart, younger,
stronger, leaner, and healthier

By 2018, 600,000 Filipinos will have diabetes, and more than half will have heart disease, according to the Philippine Diabetes Association. To help combat this, the association has launched a 30-day heart, younger, stronger, leaner, and healthier challenge.
